Let There be Peace on Earth

First Reading: 1 Kings 19.9, 11-13

When Elijah reached Horeb, the mountain of God, he came to a cave, and spent the night there. Then the word of the Lord came to him, saying, "Go out and stand on the mountain before the Lord, for the Lord is about to pass by."

Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of sheer silence.

When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave.

Responsorial Psalm: 85

R. Show us your steadfast love, O Lord, and grant us your salvation.

Let me hear what God the Lord will speak, for he will speak peace to his people. Surely his salvation is at hand for those who fear him, that his glory may dwell in our land. R.

Steadfast love and faithfulness will meet; righteousness and peace will kiss each other. Faithfulness will spring up from the ground, and righteousness will look down from the sky. R.

The Lord will give what is good, and our land will yield its increase. Righteousness will go before him, and will make a path for his steps. R.

Second Reading: Romans 9.1-5

Brothers and sisters: I am speaking the truth in Christ. I am not lying; my conscience confirms it by the Holy Spirit. I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart.

For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people, my kindred according to the flesh. They are children of Israel, and to them belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises; to them belong the patriarchs, and from them, according to the flesh, comes the Christ, who is over all, God be blessed forever. Amen.

Gospel: Matthew 14.22-33

Immediately after feeding the crowd with the five loaves and two fish, Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up the mountain by himself to pray.

When evening came, he was there alone, but by this time the boat, battered by the waves, was far from the land, for the wind was against them.

And early in the morning Jesus came walking toward them on the sea. But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out in fear. But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, "Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid."

Peter answered him, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." Jesus said, "Come." So Peter got out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came toward Jesus. But when he noticed the strong wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!"

Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?" When they got into the boat, the wind ceased. And those in the boat worshipped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."

Like A Shepherd

R Like a shepherd he feeds his flock

And gathers the lambs in his arms,

Holding them carefully close to his heart, Leading them home.

1 Say to the cities of Judah: Prepare the way of the Lord. Go to the mountaintop, lift your voice: Jerusalem, here is your God. R

2 I myself will shepherd them,

For others have led them astray. The lost I will rescue and heal their wounds

And pasture them, giving them rest. R

3 Come unto me if you are heavily burdened,

And take my yoke upon your shoulders, I will give you rest. R

I am the Bread of Life

I am the bread of life.

He who comes to me shall not hunger;

he who believes in me shall not thirst.

No one can come to me

unless the Father draw him.

And I will raise him up, and I will raise him up, and I will raise him up on the last day.

The bread that I will give

is my flesh for the life of the world,

and he who eats of this bread,

he shall live for ever,

he shall live for ever.

And I will raise him up, and I will raise him up, and I will raise him up on the last day.

Unless you eat

of the flesh of the Son of Man

and drink of his blood,

and drink of his blood,

you shall not have life within you.

And I will raise him up, and I will raise him up, and I will raise him up on the last day.

I am the resurrection,

I am the life.

He who believes in me

even if he die,

he shall live for ever.

And I will raise him up, and I will raise him up, and I will raise him up on the last day.

Yes, Lord, I believe

that you are the Christ,

the Son of God,

who has come

into the world.

And I will raise him up, and I will raise him up, and I will raise him up on the last day.

Before the Sun Burned Bright

Before the sun burn bright and rivers flowed,

I call you each by name to share My home.

No longer be afraid;

you are my son.

My love will never end,

Alleluia.

Though you have sent me, Lord, to every land,

I can't find words to speak

Your ways to mend.

Before the sun burn bright and rivers flowed,

I call you each by name to share My home.

No longer be afraid;

you are my son.

My love will never end,

Alleluia.

My hand will bring you words, so speak them loud.

I am your Lord and God;

You are my son.

Before the sun burn bright and rivers flowed,

I call you each by name to share My home.

No longer be afraid;

you are my son.

My love will never end,

Alleluia.

Let there be peace on earth

Let there be peace on earth

And let it begin with me;

Let there be peace on earth,

The peace that was meant to be.

With God as our Father

Brothers all are we,

Let me walk with my brother

In perfect harmony.

Let peace begin with me,

Let this be the moment now;

With every step I take,

Let this be my solemn vow:

To take each moment and live each moment

In peace eternally.

Let there be peace on earth

And let it begin with me.

With God our Creator

Family all are we,

Let us walk with each other

In perfect harmony.
